NEW-YORK CITY

The days and evenings of the American Institute Fair for this season are numbered. The exhibition at Sixty-third-st. and Third-ave. will close on Satur-

The evidence brought out yesterday at the meeting of the Elevated Railroad Commission showed that the property along the elevated roads had increased ormously in value since the roads were built. becomes a matter for the Commssion to decid how much more valuable the property would ha become in consequence of the rapid growth of the

The census of the institutions under the care the Commissioners of Charities and Correction show the number of inmates to be 15,200.

"Old Subscriber"-The mounds in Morningside Par near One-hundred-and tenth-st., are heaps of mou placed there some ten years ago to be used for par purposes; they are not earthworks raised during the Revolution, or during the War of 1812, when the old

The annual election of officers of the New-York Mercantile Exchange was held yesterday. Richard Delafield was elected president; David Hunt, W. H Duckworth, E. C. Williams and John N. Drake, vice presidents, and D. B. Halstead, treasurer. executive committee elected includes James H. Snyder Edward Cornell, Charles L. Rickerson, Charles Burk halter, F. N. Barrett, Julius D. Mahr, Edward Zimmer William E. Smith and S. B. Downes. James Rowland was elected trustee of the Gratuity Fund for a term of two years and John Guth for a term of one year The Aqueduct Commissioners listened through two long sessions yesterday to objections to the Quaker Bridge Dam project. Peter Hogan, a civil engineer, of Albany, deluged the Commissioners with facts and figures to show the immense cost, and the impracticability of the plans of Engineers Church and Fteley. The urgent demand for a postponement of the inquiry on the part of the objectors led to the rumor that the Legislature was to be asked to defeat the big scheme. The hearing was adjourned until Tuesday at

At the annual meeting of the Sea Cliff Grove Association, held at No. 115 Worth-st., yesterday, the following officers were elected: President, John T. Pirie; secretary, John K. Myers; trustees, John H. McQuillan, Christopher Wohltmann, J. Edgar Leaycraft, William J. Wright, Peter Blank, Milton S. Bond, James Watt, Charles E. Hadden, Wilbur F. Martin, William E. Rice, James D. Weir, Paul R. Hartmann and Frederick Chellburg.

A report on the plans for Morningside-ave., which om One-hundred-and-tenth-st. along the bluff overlooking Morningside Park, was presented yester-day to President Robb, of the Park Department, by Calvert Vaux, the landscape architect. The plans provide for a carriage way forty feet wide and a walk fifteen feet wide along the wall which overlooks the park. Between the wall and the drive Mr. Vaux provides for a space for planting American elms fifty feet apart. Miss Adele M. Woodward gave her third reading at her home, No. 462 West Twenty-second-st., on Monday afternoon. The programme consisted of selections from Victor Hugo's "Ninety Three," and two recitations in French. Among those present were: Mrs. George W. Van Sieken, Mrs. William H. Osborn, the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Tiffany, Mrs. Henry C. Potter, Mrs. G. S. Bowdoin, Mrs. Aaron Bertrand, Reid and Mrs. Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

The Architectural League has been incorporated with the following trustees: John Beverly Robinson, Edward H. Clark, John Gellately, Arnold W. Brunner, Hazlett, Frank A. Wright, H. O. Avery, Charles J. Berg, Frederic Crowinshield, John P. Riley and J. D. Hunter.

At the meeting of the Fire Commissioners yesterday James Mitchell was appointed a fire marshal. Mr. Mitchell's father was the well-known historian and Irish leader in 1848.

Policemen John H. Schott and William Long, who had served on the force twenty years, were retired on half pay at their own request yesterday. Robert G. Leach, of No. 791 Seventh-ave., who was stabbed by Patrick Hyland, of No. 324 West Fortyninth-st., on Monday afternoon, was said to be recovering in the Roosevelt Hospital yesterday. Commissioners to appraise the value of various pieces of property to be taken for school purposes were appointed by Justice Andrews, of the Supreme Court, yesterday. Franklin H. Sargent proposes to lecture on Methods in Acting" in the Lyceum Theatre on Monday at 3 p. m. under the auspices of the American Academy of the Dramatic Arts, which was formerly known as the Lyceum Theatre School and New-York School of Acting. The executive committee of the Western Union Telegraph Company at a meeting yesterday recommended that the usual quarterly dividend of 11-4 per cent should be declared and the full board of stors will probably adopt the suggestion to-day.

Robert Hatch and Percy Averill will give an evening of recital and song at the Metropolitan Opera House Hall to-morrow evening. Tickets, $1 each, are on sale at Brentano's in Union Square.

In the interview with Prince Eristoff concerning the alleged duel between himself and A. P. Rockwell published in Monday's Tribune, the reporter was informed by the Prince that Mr. Rockwell was a tailor. Mr. Rockwell is not a tallor; he is a furrier. St. Joseph's Hospital for Incurables at One-hundredand-forty-third-st, and Brook-ave., which cost $275,

000, will be consecrated to-day by Archbishop Corri-Residents of the West Side are persistent in their agitation for a station on the elevated railroad between Fifty-ninth and Seventy-second sts. The Tailors' Union will agitate against tenementhouse work by a series of weekly mass-meetings. The County Democracy leaders pretend to be calm over the many resignations. Says "Tom" Costigan Tammany will not have enough places and then comes the reaction."

It was Thomas Willis who, in behalf of Tammany, made the last overture to Coogan at 2 a. m. election morning. Coogan replied scornfully. A debate is to take place in Cooper Union tomorrow evening on Tariff Protection vs. Free Trade. The debaters will be Professor Van Buren Denslow and Thomas G. Shearman. Reserved seats for twenty five cents and platform tickets for $1 each are on sale. This certainly looks as if some one were trying to make money out of this debate, but the managers disclaim any such intention.

In the basement of the West Side Savings Bank, at

Sixth-ave, and Washington Place, a fair which concludes to-morrow is now going on under the charge the ladies of the Berean Baptist Church, in aid of the building fund of the Judson Memorial Baptist

W. L. BREESE'S FUNERAL

The funeral of William Lawrence Breese, who died at Islip on Friday from pneumonia, took place yesterday at Calvary Church, in Fourth-ave. The services were conducted by the rector, the Rev. Dr. H. Y. Satterice. Although the weather was inclement, the church contained a great many of the club and society friends of the dead man. The pall-bearers were W. B. Cutting, Raymond Duval, and Lucius K. Wil-merding, of Islip; William P. Smith, of Plainfield, N. J.; John H. Purdy, Augustin Monroe, Giraud Foster, F. H. Smith, Waiter Suydam and James Bankard. The burial was at Woodlawn.

The parlors of the Home for Old Men and Aged Couples, at No. 487, 489 and 481 Hudson-st., were filled yesterday afternoon with the cheerful-looking inmates of the home and their friends, who have come to the annual reception. The reception this year had more significance than usual, it being a housewarming as well. The home occupied but one house, No. 487, until a year and a half ago, when it added another, and now a third one has been rented. The rooms are plain but comfortable, and all have a bright appearance. The Rev. T. C. Williams, of St. Barnabas Mission, the Rev. J. T. Petey, of St. Luke's Church, and H. H. Cammann, made brief addresses to the old people.

Will frankly tell you that sudden weather changes are productive of more lung diseases and rheumatism than all other causes combined. Old physicians will tell you with equal emphasis that for the cure of diseases and aiments thus produced no remedy equals BENSON'S FLASTER. This plaster acts promptly and powerfully, but doesn't injure the most delicate skin. Ask for BENSON'S and refuse all other plasters.
